MAROUN: So it's happening, you know, on your first meeting or second meeting?

HAWATT: No it's look – it's – they advertised, that's the only problem is it has to come out of advertisement. There's nothing they can do, so as soon as the advertisement comes out they'll put into the next one after that. So that's something where we can't control, you can't even control because that's legal obligation.

MAROUN: Okay, so it should be done in your first meeting in March?

HAWATT: Hopefully yeah it should be within – 'cause it should come out in two – in two weeks is it? Two weeks advertisement. So what – what day is that? I'll have to work that out and then – and then they'll look at the assessment, so we'll push it for March.

MAROUN: Okay.

HAWATT: Alright so if you – if you l – if you get home early give me a call, 'cause by the time I finish it'll be late as well so I'm in Bankstown.

MAROUN: Okay.

HAWATT: Okay.

MAROUN: If not we'll catch up tomorrow.

HAWATT: Okay then, no problems thanks.
