Hi Paul,

My apologies for the late response, sadly my Architect and friend Stephen passed away last night unexpectedly I would appreciate if you could allow us to attend a workshop on the 1st of August.

Regards,

Belinda li

- (1) Design detail for the temporary rock anchors together with detail of how it supports the retaining wall that is sufficient to allow our clients engineers to assess the proposed design and the risks that will exist (at the various stages of construction) when destressing the rock anchors;
- (2) Sufficient design information that will allow my clients engineers to make an assessment of the likely cost that it will incur if it is required to destress the rock anchors and make safe the structure and both parties land;
- (3) Sufficient design information that will allow my clients engineers to make an assessment of the likely cost it will incur as a result of having to excavate around or remove your clients rock anchors (when excavating on its own site) if your client does not remove them;
- (4) Sufficient engineering detail that will allow my clients engineers to make an assessment of the alternative designs that could be used in lieu of rock anchors;
- (5) Engineering detail and survey information showing the proposed location of the rock anchors.
- (6) $50000 deposit to IPG solicitor trust account for structure review and legal cost. Balance will return to Bill Bergia when finalize access deed.
- (7) IPG will meet BB 7 days after receiving all the required documents above and set up venue at 126 Phillip st, sydney.
- (8) invite bill bergia attend the meeting with Structure and legal representatives.

I think the first fine we can't argue

Platform: Mobile

6/11/2017 8:49:02 AM(UTC+11)

[REDACTED] 7678@s.whatsapp.net Belinda

Because we did application on Nicholson but we did delivery on Stanley St. Which is the rear of the site

Platform: Mobile

6/11/2017 8:49:34 AM(UTC+11)

[REDACTED] 7678@s.whatsapp.net Belinda

But the second penalty our argument is we parked inside of our site and the concrete delivery is the same as other delivery. It doesn't permanently stay

Joseph,for tendering king st car park, could you please help me to confirm following details:

1. Any special facility council prefer to design for the site?
2. Funding company can we put IPG's name. Is there any conflict interest ?
3. For us to complete similar size construction job is aug 2018.. does it affect our capability ?

We will submit our tender next Tuesday and appreciate if you can confirm above information.

Thanks,
Belinda
