BRUZZANO: The reason why the feeling pretty happy they – they been told – they – they said – and they’ve been really sure that the Liberal will get up (INAUDIBLE) -

CHIDIAC: Yeah they –

BRUZZANO: (INAUDIBLE)

CHIDIAC: - I’ve – I’ve already –

BRUZZANO: (INAUDIBLE)

CHIDIAC: - I - I told them I said mate Labor got no chance of getting up.

BRUZZANO: He goes well that’s (INAUDIBLE) the case there’ll be no corruption, got nothing to worry about, it’ll – it’ll all happen pretty quickly after you know.

CHIDIAC: Yeah no it’s not gonna happen Frank, you know it’s not gonna happen (UNINTELLIGIBLE) too. The – the - you heard the conversation yesterday the Department of Planning have – have – have assured council they’re gonna get – they’re gonna take control, they’re gonna get given control and that’s what they Joseph and John fear, you know don’t want. They don’t want council –

BRUZZANO: Alright.

CHIDIAC: - take control. But they’re all -

BRUZZANO: Well let’s see –

CHIDIAC: - (UNINTELLIGIBLE) no, but – that’s right we’ll wait and see what happens I know –

BRUZZANO: Yeah wait and see –

CHIDIAC: - I know that we got no choice.

BRUZZANO: - what happens, in – in the event that - either – either way it doesn't matter as long as it happens quickly one way or another, you know?

CHIDIAC: Na, but they're under the perception – they're under the, gosh you've got the property looking good Frank.

BRUZZANO: Sorry?

CHIDIAC: Yeah looks good. They're under the perception – perception that if council take control it's gonna – they're gonna fuck em around they're gonna delay the whole system that's what they're fearful of, okay.

BRUZZANO: (UNINTELLIGIBLE) I - I don't think (UNINTELLIGIBLE) look if – if council's gonan take control I would want council to take control very quickly –

CHIDIAC: Yeah.

BRUZZANO: - but there's no delays (UNINTELLIGIBLE) you know.

CHIDIAC: Yeah, but I – I – what we wish and what they're –

BRUZZANO: (INAUDIBLE)

CHIDIAC: - thinking are two different things. They're thinking especially Kinsella and Gerald that council has done nothing, but screw em around then they're gonna delay the actual process, okay. But what – what – what I believe okay council will get – they'll get given resources and they've got the resources now, they never had the resources six months ago. They'll have the resources now to, to m - you know to fast track it.

BRUZZANO: Yeah.

CHIDIAC: If they want to – if they want to, you know I'm saying?

BRUZZANO: Okay.

CHIDIAC: Ah –

BRUZZANO: (INAUDIBLE)

BRUZZANO: (INAUDIBLE)

CHIDIAC: Frank you're breaking up.

BRUZZANO: Am I? Can you hear me?

CHIDIAC: I can't hear you your phone's shonky.

BRUZZANO: Yeah that's right I walked upstairs. Ah whatever happens I'd be – I'd be happy you know?

CHIDIAC: Yeah no anyway – anyway, but anyway, but they can – anyway, but they, they're, so they're – they're um – they're ah - that's what – that's what their concern is that council's gonna take and the – like I said to you just make a note of it, the Department of Planning have told council - okay they're – they're didn't have a problem giving em ah – giving them control.

BRUZZANO: They've got no faith in the council that's what it is.

CHIDIAC: Ay?

BRUZZANO: They have very little faith in the council that's the problem.

CHIDIAC: Who has?

BRUZZANO: Both Kinsella and Joseph have no faith in the council, they think the council doesn't have the ability to successfully administer the –

CHIDIAC: Yeah – yeah I know (INAUDIBLE) –

BRUZZANO: - ah control over that (INAUDIBLE) –

CHIDIAC: Yeah no – no that's right – that's right. Absolutely. But you ask council, council say to you no we have got the ability, we want to take control of it.

BRUZZANO: But it just takes them too long.

CHIDIAC: So will take em, I really don't know, I don't know. I – I –

BRUZZANO: It – it –

CHIDIAC: Well –

BRUZZANO: - takes them too long that's the problem.
