

You were employed, were you not, on this secondary project as a design manager?---Ah hmm.

Do you have qualifications as a design manager?---It was reviewing designs, yeah. So there was, what do you call it, just drawings to be reviewed, and because I had that practice of doing that within the TAP projects, I was a good fit.

10 You don't have any specific design qualifications.---No, but I, I, I understood constraints, design constraints.

And did you actually undertake the work that you were paid for?---Yes.
