Did you send Ben Vardanega the bill of quantities document for Wollstonecraft?---No.

What does that email relate to, Mr Gayed?---So it relates to the bill of quantities for Wollstonecraft. I remember him asking me if I can send it, but I, I absolutely did not send it, but it seems like in this email it looks like I did send it.

20 What's your explanation as for an email, leaving your email address and being received in Mr Vardanega's that has this attachment?---I can only speculate that someone jumped onto my laptop and sent it off my personal email, which was rarely locked, foolishly, and had, had this sort of information on my desktop quite regularly.

I see. And where would they have accessed your laptop from?---The Wollstonecraft office. There was a site shed. I had a, a room and a desk that was never locked.
