NGUYEN                    TONY NGUYEN
COX                            AIDAN COX

EXTRACT OF CALL 10.35.05 TO 10.36.30

COX:                            But if we buy a van are we not going to get Enda to kit it out through Council?

NGUYEN:                        Yeah of course, we, yeah, you need it - everything's going to be supplied by Council.

COX:                            Yeah well so suddenly, um, the – the kit out - the fit out cost isn't really – is irrelevant?

NGUYEN:                        Oh yeah, okay, yeah true, yeah, yeah, 'cause the eight grand that you just got could do the fit out anyway. (LAUGHS).

COX:                            Sorry?

NGUYEN:                        The eight grand that you got could do the fit out. You know the stair, you know how you got that –

COX:                            Well, no, hang on the eight grand I got, four of it I actually fuckin' paid. What are you on about?

NGUYEN:                        No, no, the extra, what are you talking about, the second one. It was a duplicate. I was just going to – you're going to -

COX:                            You duplicated something did you?

NGUYEN:                        Well Lojine duplicated. I did one and Lojine did one. That's how, oh screw it. I put it through already.

COX: She's paid the eight grand twice?

NGUYEN: Yeah. No, I paid once and he paid once.

COX: So that's for the, um, the stair nosing?

NGUYEN: Stair nosing, yeah, yeah, yeah.

COX: So the stair nosing was 16 grand?

NGUYEN: Yeah, yeah, yeah, I told you, yeah.

COX: (LAUGHS).

NGUYEN: And then (UNDECIPHERABLE) we fucked up because, eh, we only did two ends, there was middle that was left out by design. That's why it was doubled up. (LAUGHS)

COX: Fuckin' hell.

NGUYEN: Yeah, oh it's alright, yeah so.
