COX TO NGUYEN

COX AIDAN COX
NGUYEN TONY NGUYEN

EXTRACT 09.30.41 TO END

COX: That's not actually the way they're supposed to be putting the fuckin' tenders out. You know they're supposed to be asking the contractor to deliver a scope of works. You know so it's not – they're not supposed to be deliver - this is the thing they need to get in their fuckin' stupid heads. They're supposed to be delivering these stations differently to the ones we did the last time because the last time there was two more (UNDECIPHERABLE).

NGUYEN: Oh yeah. Yeah, that's right, yeah 'cause I remember Nima said yeah the way they package the sections and they have to give that out in sections.

COX: Yeah. So -

NGUYEN: Yeah.

COX: - nobody wants to price the sections accept us.

NGUYEN: Yeah.

COX: Even if we don't get this one, if we don't get this and they go to Shotcrete Australia. I'm ringing Kevin Watters and going to Kevin, 'remember that eight grand I gave you last year in cash'. This is how the conversation goes. This is how the conversation with Keven, 'remember the eight grand of cash I gave you last year, what the fuck's going on here, we're being excluded from fucking tenders because we – we're – we're fuckin' clever enough to know who the crack subcontractor to go with. You then go behind our back and fuckin' going direct to that contractor. That's twice that it's happened. How the fuck do you think –

NGUYEN: Oh but don't – don't mention the eight grand, just whatever – whatever you said before - after the eight grand, yeah say that. You don't need to remind him.

COX: But anyway, (UNDECIPHERABLE) reputation isn't the most important thing he has.

NGUYEN: Yeah, this (UNDECIPHERABLE) is like, yeah I know it is but just, um, that's a threat.

COX: Yeah, yeah I suppose it's bit threatening.

NGUYEN: Yeah don't threaten him. Just say how it is, yeah.

COX: Alright, I ring Ross and then –

NGUYEN: Yeah if you want, Ross, Ross will know but just again, like you said, don't hand information over. I just called you straight away when I got off the phone to Nima. That's it. He called me, I picked up and then I called you. It's, yeah.

COX: Yeah, alright no worries. Go on.

NGUYEN: Alright, okay, bye, bye.
