EXTRACT OF CALL 14.29.55 to 14.32.51:

COX:                              So I, I think, I think the days of Nima being able to control anything. I don't know how he, I don't know how the fuck he got away with, with –

NGUYEN:                        Kingswood?

COX:                              - what do you call it, Kingswood.

NGUYEN:                        Yeah.

COX:                              I don't know how he got away with that.

NGUYEN:                        Oh, oh well.

COX:                              The, but with, with Kevin over the top, would he get, get away with it again?

NGUYEN:                        No, fuck no, Kevin.

COX:                              Kevin.

NGUYEN:                        But then, oh but if they're on the same side, if he, Kevin is like yeah RJS (UNINTELLIGIBLE) RJS, then might be different story.

COX: Huh?

NGUYEN: Fuck I don't know. 'Cause – 'cause Nima is a client, remember that.

COX: Yeah but is he going to be okay, so is Nima going to be on Banksia?

NGUYEN: No he's not, of course not, no he's not on Banksia.

COX: Right well then he's got fuck all –

NGUYEN: He is not on Banksia at all, yeah.

COX: - control over Banksia.

NGUYEN: Yeah, yeah, yeah, so he has no control over Banksia, we know that.

COX: So -

NGUYEN: He trying to make it sound like he has control through, through Sairam.

COX: The only thing he could do is bitch about RJS to -

NGUYEN: Well he can't, there, there's too, so many, he likes Kevin (UNINTELLIGIBLE), he likes everyone, it's fucked, it's rubbish it's fine.

COX: Right so I, I think, I think unless, what, what, what stations is he over?

NGUYEN: Um, Wollstonecraft.

COX: Wollstonecraft.

NGUYEN: Yeah and then Birrong.

COX: So – so Wollstonecraft and Birrong, he’s going to be over them too so Ben.

NGUYEN: So if, if he, if he, yeah.

COX: So Ben, Ben and Andrew Gayed, basically if Nima wants us to fucking give him anything.

NGUYEN: That’s got to be careful, that’s who you got to be careful, because he goes oh Ben’s going to say, he’s a middle player, the top guy and you guys are the contractors so we can make this work.

COX: What’s that sorry?

NGUYEN: Nah, well he’s going to say, ‘oh yeah Ben’s in the middle’. So we have control of all, you got the client’s side or you got the MC side and we got the co.. subbies. So we got to be careful, huh.

COX: Yeah but Ben, Ben’s, Ben’s not there yet.

NGUYEN: No he’s not there yet but I, I reckon in time they’ll be talking, say oh fuck yeah actually jump in, jump in, (UNINTELLIGIBLE) Downer.

COX: Well that’s what Ben’s already talking about doing but if he finds himself doing that on a project that Nima’s on, Nima’s going to be wanting a big fat cut out of whatever Ben does.

NGUYEN: Oh yeah, yeah, yeah, 100%, yeah, yeah.

COX: I reckon leave them to it, the fuck. I, I think, I, I, I'm starting to think that we'll make more out of fucking, if we, if we get a big technical package and we make it fucking very simple, I reckon, I reckon they've got big budgets in there for under pin fucking structures and stuff. If we come up with some of these simple fucking solution, we can make a fucking heap of money without having any of them cunts.

NGUYEN: Yeah, yeah, yeah, of course we going to say.

COX: And the only person we have to look after is Kevin.

NGUYEN: Yeah, yeah that's what we do.

COX: And Kevin, Kevin will take 20 grand, grand in an envelope, you know?

NGUYEN: Yeah, yeah I know and then that's him, happy.

COX: He, he, he'd be a fucking fraction of the price of those other wankers and -

NGUYEN: Yeah, yeah, yeah 'cause he knows, he's oh wow fuck, yeah.
