COX TO VARDANEGA

COX AIDAN COX
VARDANEGA BEN VARDANEGA

EXTRACT 1 OF CALL 20:41:10 – 20:43:05

COX: I reckon all the money is in the building.

VARDANEGA: You reckon?

COX: Um, I'm only going by your original, you know the original spreadsheet you sent?

VARDANEGA: Mm.

COX: I'm going by that there. Let me have a look at that, cause there's money in it you need to be pricing something. Even though you're not going to get it.

VARDANEGA: Just to make it hard for him?

COX: No, not just to make it hard. Um, well –

VARDANEGA: Yeah, to make it hard for him.

COX: Well, is that really fuckin', you know what's the point of me pricing a job, wasting all my fucking time and effort and at the end of a day, that's my living, yeah.

VARDANEGA: Yeah totally and then he's just – he just whacked it into another – another fuckin' um – into another package, all the cream.

COX: Is that the package that he's going to give to his mate.

VARDANEGA: Yeah.

COX: I don't know, it just doesn't sit with – I don't think fuckin' – from my experience I don't believe there is enough fuckin' money in that package to make it, you know, like we're talking about fuckin' all this money we're gonna split. There's not – there'll be nothing fuckin' left to split.

VARDANEGA: Yeah, then mate if that's – if that's the case then we pull the pin. I'm not – I'm not – like the whole point of this whole exercise was to work out if there was any value in actually taking on the works and – and which one would be the one to take it on. So if you're saying by simply looking at the numbers that it just doesn't work then it doesn't work. There's – we're not – we're not here to – we're not here to question that. There's – well there's just no business case for it.

END OF EXTRACT 1

EXTRACT 2 OF CALL 24:54:11 – 20:55:40

COX: Basically my price we done if – if we go with a fuckin' cheap price is he going to fuckin' load us up with variations and did you get a – did you get a (UNDECIPHERABLE).

VARDANEGA: He – he said that he was going to make it so that, you know, we're - we're not going to be losing money on this thing but I'd rather be going in heavy and then getting into the meeting because if you go in with a heavy price and then everyone, if everything – if – let's say the package was a million bucks and we went in at 1.5 and when you go in for that meeting you're going to find out what everybody else is saying, said the price was, and then you can have that negotiation with them. So I'd rather go in heavy and then draw it down.

Use – use the contact to bring the price down. Do you know what I mean?

COX: Yeah but you don't get what I mean.

VARDANEGA: I know – I know what you're saying. You're saying if we go in light can we then make it up with variations and that sort of thing.

COX: No, I'm saying is this guy gonna fuckin' basically be doing fraudulently activity to fuckin' put money in our pocket. That's all I'm saying.

VARDANEGA: Well I think that he's – he's going to have that focus more on the building package because it sounds like his – it's his mate.

COX: Mm.

VARDANEGA: But we're doing something in a completely separate area.
