

SELECTION CRITERIA

SENIOR FORENSIC ACCOUNTANT INVESTIGATION DIVISION

SELECTION CRITERIA	WEIGHTING OF SELECTION CRITERIA IN RELATION TO EACH OTHER %
1. A degree or higher-level qualification in Commerce, Accounting or Business from a recognised Tertiary Institution. A qualification in forensic accounting and/or membership or eligibility for membership of a professional accounting association or institute is highly desirable.	30
2. Significant experience in providing forensic accounting expertise, advice and expert reports and statements to support complex investigations into alleged serious offences and/or public sector misconduct and proceedings arising in and from those investigations.	30
3. An expert understanding of business and financial information reporting systems, accounting and auditing standards and techniques, forensic fraud asset and funds tracing, qualitative and quantitative analysis techniques and APES 215 Forensic Accounting Services standards.	20
4. Well-developed problem solving and analytical skills, the ability to write well and communicate effectively with people of diverse background, occupation, and seniority, both internal and external to the Commission.	20