HAWATT: Ah probably um ‘cause he’s – because there’s a court case on that’s why.

EL BADAR: Yeah, but are – are the – are your – are their – are their lawyers gonna be there?

HAWATT: No – no – no just – just you and Spiro.

EL BADAR: Okay.

HAWATT: Your lawyer and Spiro that’s all. It’s not a legal thing you just sit down with Spiro to sort out the issue.

EL BADAR: Okay because this guy it seems like’s really pushing for us to go to court so I just got the feeling (UNINTELLIGIBLE) oh he started asking oh why does he want to see us and is he gonna be there without his legal team and you know what’s that gonna do and –

EL BADAR: Yeah.

HAWATT: - it's without prejudice -

EL BADAR: I told him that.

HAWATT: - sit down and sort it out before you go to court. That's all, it's as simple as that.

EL BADAR: Yeah it's just 'cause the court hearing is supposed to be two days so he's paying (INAUDIBLE) -

HAWATT: Yeah just say doesn't matter, say we want to sort it out before.

EL BADAR: Yeah, but I think -

HAWATT: Don't worry about (INAUDIBLE) -

EL BADAR: - he wants to make - I think he wants to make some money this idiot.

HAWATT: Of course he does. Just say -

EL BADAR: That's why I'm saying if he doesn't need to be there then I can attend and with the – with the architect or the town planner, we can change whatever they want. Like if they were – if they're willing to give us, you know, something.

HAWATT: (UNINTELLIGIBLE) no they're willing, I mean I just don't understand why (UNINTELLIGIBLE) why didn't you talk to me before you went to court?

EL BADAR: [Swear to god] it was just – we t – we t – we tried to - like I said to you I tried to do it and I don't like to ask too much [you know what I mean]?

HAWATT: No well if there's issues like that and people keep shifting the goal post then you have your rights.

EL BADAR: That's fine.

HAWATT: (INAUDIBLE) let me just go and –

EL BADAR: And that's why –

HAWATT: - you don't need to go to court every time.

EL BADAR: - the other day we were waiting for their reply. Yeah we were waiting for their reply the other day and then all of a sudden they give us a reply five days later they were supposed to give us this reply last week [you know what I mean]? So they made it – they l – they waited for two three days now what before the court to give us this letter.
