HAWATT: I've had the – I had a cough bloody I had it for two weeks but it's getting better.

ADLER: That's no good.

HAWATT: - (INAUDIBLE) it's getting better.

ADLER: Yeah – yeah.

HAWATT: Getting there, getting better.

ADLER: Yeah, you'll be there tomorrow obviously?

HAWATT: Yeah – yeah definitely I will –

ADLER: Yeah good.

HAWATT: - you want to catch up first or?

ADLER: Yes – yeah look there's a – there's a couple of items that I've – I'm not sort of comfortable with, but I just wanted to run over with you because I respect your view –

HAWATT: Yep – yeah.

ADLER: And there's various ways we can deal with these things, but first of all is the – is just the – you know the IHAP recommended against three of them.

HAWATT: Look I – I – can I just say I – I – I just went through all the business papers just now alright.

ADLER: Yep – yep.

HAWATT: I have concerns with IHAP making recommendations against the council officers and I'll tell you why.

ADLER: Yep.

HAWATT: Now the council officers spend six months to twelve months going back and forward with the – with the applicants –

ADLER: Yes.

HAWATT: - do this, do that, come back –

ADLER: Yeah –

HAWATT: - more setback –

ADLER: Yeah.

HAWATT: - reduce this, reduce that –

ADLER: Yeah.

HAWATT: - six to twelve months alright?

ADLER: Yeah – yeah – yeah.

HAWATT: Now IHAP sits there and make a decision in an hour –

ADLER: Yeah.

HAWATT: - or two hours –

ADLER: Yeah.

HAWATT: - they can re – reassess the whole thing which is not right they don't know what's behind the scene. Now –

ADLER: Well exactly –

HAWATT: - as far as I'm concerned – as far as I'm concerned IHAP should never go against the officers recommendation but their job should make amendment –

ADLER: Yeah.

HAWATT: - in order to improve on the approval, to help residents or whatever alright.

ADLER: Yeah – yep.

HAWATT: I think that's where the problem is they can't just go ahead and get them to re-design this or – or – or re-assess this you can't it just to me – I was looking at it and – and I had a talk – I rang mo – Jim Montague over that I said Jim I said this is bullshit. I said –

ADLER: Yeah.

HAWATT: - how could a – a committee that sits there for an hour –

ADLER: Yeah.

HAWATT: - and make a decision that has taken our council staff six to twelve months.

ADLER: Yeah – yeah I can see the issues there right?

HAWATT: It – it doesn't make sense I said it doesn't stack up.

ADLER: Yeah.

HAWATT: And as far as I'm concerned if somebody says the recommendation to me I would go for more of the council officers with amendments that needs to be done not – you can't go against it or re-assess it.

ADLER: Yeah – yeah.

HAWATT: And that's the concern I have with some of these IHAP recommendations.

ADLER: Yeah – yeah well –

HAWATT: And I know – I – I – and also I know another thing that’s happening and also I’m not happy with is Barbara Coorey –

ADLER: Yeah.

HAWATT: - she’s been going round, she would bad mouths everybody at the – at the IHAP committee and – and then the committee I just made recommendation – probably scared to make a recommendation because of her – her tactic.

ADLER: (INAUDIBLE)

HAWATT: And they’re telling – telling an architectures will sit next to him and I mean come on you can’t just –

ADLER: Yeah.

HAWATT: - go who the hell are you to go (INAUDIBLE) –

ADLER: Yeah I know – I know that’s ridiculous right I totally agree there.

HAWATT: You know this – and she has – she’s – she’s out of – out of line with this and at the same time I’m – I’m – I want to talk to you about something else that I’m planning on doing which is you and I as you know –

ADLER: Yeah – yeah.

HAWATT: - and also to help you out.

ADLER: Yeah – yeah.

HAWATT: Alright, so in regards to the next council.

ADLER: Yes – yes – yes – yes.

HAWATT: I'm working – I'm working on something that's - is a good tactical move.

ADLER: Yeah. What I'd like to do I'm on the train at the moment I just want to touch base with you briefly –

HAWATT: Yeah.

ADLER: - but I'd like to talk fac – maybe if we can face to face later this evening.

HAWATT: Yeah – yeah that's fine.
