HAWATT TO DEMIAN

HAWATT MICHAEL HAWATT
DEMIAN CHARBEL DEMIAN

DEMIAN: Hi Michael, how you going?

HAWATT: Good Charlie, how's it going?

DEMIAN: Good – good.

HAWATT: (INAUDIBLE)

DEMIAN: So what – what you're saying?

HAWATT: Yeah we're trying to resolve this problem I think it could work and – and your suggestion about the reduction of the commission.

DEMIAN: Yep.

HAWATT: How – however because there's a reduction that'll increase the net position of – of what the offer is alright. So what – what the other guy, because there's two groups as you probably know there's George – George's group.

DEMIAN: Yeah.

HAWATT: And the other one. So what happens then if they accept that offer then George's group are left with nothing. Is it possible then to maybe pay some consulting fees on the – on the – separate to the – to the commission because you (INAUDIBLE) –

DEMIAN: What sort of – what sort of fees are we talking about?

HAWATT: Well there's an increase – I'm not sure it's something you'll have to work out at what you can – you can do because there's an – there's an increase – because now you – they've dropped the commission your – your net position goes up and then you – you work it from there to see how these people (INAUDIBLE) –

DEMIAN: Yeah but what are – what are we talking? Like what? Give me – give me, you know, let me know what they're thinking.

HAWATT: Well you know something that works for – for the – the group of how many people are there there's like one, two, three, four, five I don't know, five people involved (UNINTELLIGIBLE). So maybe work something that'll work for everybody. You – you work it out that works for you that you can do.

DEMIAN: Why don't you ask him what he's thinking and come back to me, give him a call now.

HAWATT: Alright I'll call him now. Let me call him.

DEMIAN: Talk to him and give me a call back.

HAWATT: (INAUDIBLE) okay then (INAUDIBLE) –

DEMIAN: Bye.
