In line with Luke Foley’s commitment, the Australian Labor Party (NSW Branch) and Country Labor are now both publicly disclosing their single Reportable Donations ($1,000 or more) on their respective websites, effective from the week beginning 26 February 2018.

Officers’ Report Friday 6 April 2018
Claims for Funding for the Blacktown, Cootamundra and Murray by-elections have been lodged with the NSW Electoral Commission, as well as two nil returns for the New England and Bennelong by-elections.

In line with the NSW Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, NSW Labor and Country Labor are about to commence the annual Party Registration process, which requires confirmation through individually, signed declarations that they each have 750 members.

The Governance Director, Financial Controller and Disclosures Officer recently met with the Party Auditors HLB Mann Judd to prepare and plan for the 2017/18 financial audit and NSW Disclosures.

Branch Officials training day on 21 April will include a session on Branch finances and disclosures.

A Party Office Staff Planning day was held on Monday 26 March, led by John Whelan and Julie Sibraa. Annual staff performance reviews will be conducted throughout this month.

Recommendation: That the report be noted.
