COOPER:            Hello.

PETCH:            Gday mate how you going?

COOPER:            Not bad (unintelligible) well done sport well done. I can't tell you how how delighted and grateful I am mate ah.

PETCH:            Well we didn't complete it until about 8 o'clock tonight.

COOPER:            Oh I heard that the release went out at 6:30.

PETCH:            No. Well after that mate because I had to I had to to have the 7 o'clock or so they had the the lawyers in conflict you know trying to get the document cause I had an original draft and Neish didn't want that he wants something changed in it and then the Bryan Belling our lawyer he was in ah having a carc oh no what do they call it not a carcinoma thing the other thing ay a.

COOPER:            Caveat?

PETCH:            What do they call it a growth it's called a.

COOPER:            Castle caveat?

PETCH:            No no no no a cancer what do you call the thing a um?

COOPER:            Melanoma?

PETCH:            Melanoma had a huge melanoma taken out of his back.

COOPER:            Oh did he. Oh right.

PETCH: So he was ahh only had his draft the lawyer try to do these things and then he come back and he looked at the alterations and some things he agreed to and some things he wouldn't so we had this all to and fro till we finally got a document together ah which Neish ultimately signed.

COOPER: Did it did you show him the photographs?

PETCH: Didn't have to mate he knew all about it ICAC have it this is not for a public.

COOPER: Oh no no no we are talking as mates of course of course.

PETCH: ICAC have commandeered his computer.

COOPER: (LAUGHS) I did I did hear that they put the rough end of the pineapple up him this afternoon mate.

PETCH: Yes he was there this afternoon. And I am giving evidence on Friday.

COOPER: Will he have charges referred against him mate?

PETCH: I don't know ICAC don't tell us that.

COOPER: No.

PETCH: Obviously they haven't a finished there is that you Will. Alright.

COOPER: (LAUGHS) So he's gone now mate how much did he get out of curiosity did he only get the time from the 23rd of April or is that it?

PETCH: No we give him a a 38 week settlement and that was cheap money I thought.

COOPER: Oh mate just get rid of the fucker I mean just get rid of him Ivan.

PETCH: That's what we had to do.

COOPER: Mate I hear the other thing that impressed me was that you and Jeff work so bloody closely together I I just think that that says a lot about our community that.

PETCH: Well he's a decent man mate.

COOPER: Oh he's bloody tops I but ah did he have any recalcitrance or (unintelligible) or did he just accept his fate this prick?

PETCH: Oh no he came up yesterday to see me yesterday morning he was shitting himself.

COOPER: Was that because of the pictures or?

PETCH: I think because of the computer mate.

COOPER: Yeah that's what I'm saying the filth on the computer yeah.

PETCH: He was terrified that his family would find out.

COOPER: Oh really.

PETCH: Yeah that's it.

COOPER: So he's a good family man on the surface and he's got all this filth.

PETCH: Yeh.

COOPER: Well that's um also of course when are you going take out Johnson mate?

PETCH: He could've gone the same day as Neish.
