LAFACE TO PETCH

LAFACE STEFANO LAFACE ()
PETCH IVAN PETCH

START OF EXTRACT 1

PETCH: How are you mate?

LAFACE: Not too bad Ivan how are you?

PETCH: Yeh good mate I Neish has managed to piss off all the people in the IT section.

LAFACE: Yeh.

PETCH: He got I got one of them on side he first of all he just wanted to make an appointment just to bring up to stage how um Neish's has wasted $300,000 dollars in an IT.

LAFACE: Yeh.

PETCH: So I said while you are there can you have a look files which have been deleted by the previous Mayor.

LAFACE: Yeh.

PETCH: So he took them out and undeleted them and gave and he turned up yesterday with a fucking CD.

LAFACE: Yep.

PETCH: It's off the council's main frame.

LAFACE: Yep.

PETCH: And it's got the verification thing on the front and everything you know what Neish does when he's not doing anything else on the on the council website?

LAFACE: No what?

PETCH: Surfing the fucking net for porn he's got all these pornographic photographs.

LAFACE: Oh shivers.

PETCH: (unintelligible) with Neish's name all over it.

LAFACE: Are you kidding me or are you serious?

PETCH: I am I am serious mate I am not kidding you.

END OF EXTRACT 1

START OF EXTRACT 2

LAFACE: Gee that's immediate dismissal under the policy hey.

PETCH: Is it?

LAFACE: You are not you are not allowed to um use ahh council facilities to surf the ah porn sites but how did he get access to the porn sites because um IT should have it blocked.

PETCH: Well they didn't have it blocked it's got all the sub all the files and it shows you how it comes down to John Neish and then it's got internet it goes down after that the next file and all that sort of stuff.

LAFACE: Is this off is this off John Neish's computer?

PETCH: This is off council's mainframe John.

LAFACE: You should before before you even refer it to anyone.

PETCH: Yep.

LAFACE: You should get a statement from the bloke saying that he accessed the mainframe he accessed such and such's desktop.

PETCH: Well I think he wants to remain anonymous.

LAFACE: Well he can't otherwise you can't use it they're going to say you tampered with it. How how it's proof that it came from his computer does something say Neish on it?

PETCH: It does say Neish.

LAFACE: Ohh.

PETCH: It's got here it's got the whole lot there's all the sub headings /John Neish/the whole lot but it shows you the the other side of the thing shows you the breakdown you know as you go down the left hand side of all the all the chapters and everything it's all there mate and it's got a verification code and the date it was done and everything all on there.

LAFACE: Geez. Um why why did you make those enquiries?

PETCH: I didn't.

LAFACE: Okay and he just brought this disk to you?

PETCH: He said he came up and gave it to me and put his finger to his mouth and said sshh you might find something on there interesting. (LAUGHS).

LAFACE: Jesus christ.

PETCH: When I first put it up though they were you know you couldn't enlarge the pictures they were all pretty low grade when you try to enlarge them and I understand why--

LAFACE: Yeh.

PETCH: --because it they're there to see what it is not to there I said why the fuck did you give me all this shit for then I looked at the title bar boom-boom-boom John Neish and I said you fucking beauty I can now (unintelligible)

LAFACE: Which computer did you look on that from?

PETCH: I didn't look on it I look I've got it on a CD. He's burnt all the files onto a CD.

LAFACE: Ohh well I think you should probably have a meeting with your team.

PETCH: Yeh I'm trying to some of them are away and I'm I'm just enlightening them with what's going on. What I've done I've given it to Bryan Belling.

LAFACE: Yep.

PETCH: He's another lawyer cause he's the mediating lawyer who deals with the bloke who is a mate of Neish's.

LAFACE: Yeah but make sure you make a copy of it Ivan.

PETCH: No I've got copies there's several copies of it mate.

LAFACE: Oh okay.

PETCH: (LAUGHS) It was the easiest thing in the world copy not only that I am going to print a few a few colour prints of the pages out too.

LAFACE: Yeah.

PETCH: So so that people don't have stick it in their computer's to see what's on there.

LAFACE: Yeh no no that's not right what he's done.

PETCH: No. So we'll just keep that I think the the end of Neish might be closer than what we think mate.

LAFACE: Well it would be good at least it would put a lot of things to bed.

PETCH: Well particularly if Ross Woodward was to get a copy at the at the the Department of Local Government and the Minister I think they would wipe their hands off him.

LAFACE: Yeh well well I got a phone call from Tony Day yesterday from the DLG.

PETCH: Yeah.

LAFACE: I left a message for him I'll call him again today he wanted to speak to me um about you guys so once I find out what he wants.

PETCH: Yep.

LAFACE: Um I'll come back to you but it's got to be my approach to him to say that there's no need to have an investigation until ICAC finish their findings.

PETCH: Yep.

LAFACE: I said because we can't jeopardise a pending investigation.

PETCH: Yep.

LAFACE: That's going to be my suggestion to him.

PETCH: Yep.

LAFACE: I am going to say that you know my clients are happy to participate in interviews but.

PETCH: Yep.

LAFACE: But until such time that a report has been issued.

PETCH: Yep.

LAFACE: It's not appropriate for the clients to attend.

PETCH: Yep.

LAFACE: And I'll think he'll understand that because even the magistrate said even her honour said that it's not appropriate to go into evidence.

PETCH: Yep.

LAFACE: So. Alright leave that with me and I'll come back to you.

PETCH: Good on you mate.

LAFACE: Well that's good news.

PETCH: I thought I might I thought I would share it with you.

LAFACE: Yeh.

PETCH: I'm meeting Norm at at at 10:30 and I'll leave a copy with Norm for you.

LAFACE: Fair enough.

PETCH: Alright.

LAFACE: Alright no problem.

PETCH: Good on you mate.

LAFACE: Alright no worries.

PETCH: Catch you.

LAFACE: Bye.
