Hi Emir,

Rod the Pinball mechanic, can come down to [REDACTED] sometime next week if you still prefer this over returning the machine back to Sydney metro.

His call out / travel fee is $220 which Includes the first hour On site. ( Syd metro call out fee is $132 )

This should be more than enough time to identify where this loose post has come loose from, and to install back, and tighten up.

Please confirm, is someone at the [REDACTED] address during business hours Mon – Fri?

if so, can Rod confirm a day and time Via 404 538 751?

I've marked in the picture, there is a loose post floating around, pop the glass off, and remove this,
But this has come from somewhere, and you will, need to look around, and try and find where its from,
This will just screw back in.

I have posted out to you , the flipper return springs, these simply loop at each end of the flipper assy arm, and the switch (slide the glass off, and lift playfield to do this easily )

Hi Emir,

Rod the Pinball mechanic, can come down to [REDACTED] sometime next week if you still prefer this over returning the machine back to Sydney metro.

His call out / travel fee is $220 which Includes the first hour On site. ( Syd metro call out fee is $132 )

This should be more than enough time to identify where this loose post has come loose from, and to install back, and tighten up.

Please confirm, is someone at the [REDACTED] address during business hours Mon – Fri?

if so, can Rod confirm a day and time Via 404 538 751?

Regards

I've marked in the picture, there is a loose post floating around, pop the glass off, and remove this,

But this has come from somewhere, and you will, need to look around, and try and find where its from,

This will just screw back in.

I have posted out to you , the flipper return springs, these simply loop at each end of the flipper assy arm, and the switch (slide the glass off, and lift playfield to do this easily )

Hi Emir,
Good yto hear all is OK.

Hi Emir,
Good to hear all is well.

Ownership:

There is nothing really that's needed to be done for ownership from our pespective.
Warranty status is from serial number and date,

If you want piece of mind, you can use the PPSR:

<https://www.ppsr.gov.au/why-use-ppsr>

or issue Dennis a receipt for ownership of the item ( I assume for Insurance etc )

The Pinball is like any other asset, and can be bought , sold, etc
