Invitation to the Opening of No.3 Wagga Wagga Cafe

Mr. Daryl Maguire

You are cordially invited to attend the opening of 'Wagga Wagga' Cafe in Guangzhou as our honoured guest. We would be grateful if you could please invite the NSW Premier Mr O'Farrell to also attend the opening.

Australian-styled restaurant Wagga Wagga is a 1960's inspired milk bar and the first branch was opening in Beijing Lu last year. The new branch of Wagga Wagga has opened in shopping mall UU Park, which is located in the heart of Guangzhou CBD. Only a short distance walk from the Grand Hyatt hotel.

We seek that you please advise us whether you would like to attend the opening. We are available to hold the opening ceremony at any time between July 30th and 31st .

Yours sincerely,

Gordon

Hi Daryl

I just tried calling. Have looked at the program. Doing the ribbon cutting after the breakfast on Tuesday won't work – but he could do it at Monday 30 July at 3:30pm.

He would arrive at the Cafe at 3:30pm and we would need to release him at 4pm. (This is so we can give him 1.5hrs of time to himself before the Governor's meeting and dinner – it's the only time he has to himself all day so we want to give it to him if possible)

I checked with him this morning - he is happy to do it.

I have asked the scheduling team to add it. Just so we can get BOF some info, would you mind please asking Gordon to get his team to fill in the attached brief template. (We just need info on him, his background from Wagga and his restaurant etc) - this helps inform BOF when he speaks.

I will also inform Paula (the protocol lead) so she knows this has been added to the schedule. (She will be in China with you). I have copied Nihal, who will also be there, as well as BOF's press secretaries, Mark and Marie.

Mark and Marie – as soon as we get the info, we will need a press release on this opening. Will come and discuss.

I am pleased we have managed to get this up – it should be great.

Many thanks

Hi Daryl,

Yoko (my P.A.) already booked your room at Grand Hyatt from the 28th, and check out on the 2 nd the other sourcing things is something we doing everyday,we 'll go through it after the 31 th.

now something i need you to help ,next tuesday the 31th,is our offical opening of our no. 3 WAGGA WAGGA cafe,which located at the underground shopping centre,100 meters from the Grand Haytt hotel.

Wagga Wagga Cafe is a Australian styled restaurant in a 1960's inspired milk bar and the first branch was opening in Beijing road last year.

I understand you may have a hectic schedule for your rush trip,But this is going to be our big big honour .if you perhap our premier could attend the opening after the business breakfast meeting.

regards

Gordon
