EXTRACT

MAGUIRE: (UNINTELLIGIBLE)

WANG: Hello.

MAGUIRE: Hey, how you going?

WANG: Yeah – yeah good – good. Did you –

MAGUIRE: Good.

WANG: - sorry I was on the phone. Did you -

MAGUIRE: Yep.

WANG: - send a message or something?

MAGUIRE: Yeah I sent you a message, I see that Hobart's here –

WANG: Ehm.

MAGUIRE: - when did – when did he arrive?

WANG: He said he just arrived today or –

MAGUIRE: Good.

WANG: - or yesterday maybe because he's coming for that International Chamber – Chamber something, the conference.

MAGUIRE: (UNINTELLIGIBLE)

WANG: Yeah (INAUDIBLE) –

MAGUIRE: Alright.

WANG: It's called International ah – In – In – International Chamber of Commerce.

MAGUIRE: Oh we should go and turn up and say hello.

WANG: Yeah so that's (UNINTELLIGIBLE) you know, so and they have a conference from tomorrow to Thursday.

MAGUIRE: And where is it being held?

WANG: Sydney.

MAGUIRE: But we don't know where.

WANG: Oh at – no I don't know where it is.

MAGUIRE: Probably Darling Harbour or something like that., but we should – we should find out a bit more. Um with his factory, that's closing, you know the (UNINTELLIGIBLE) factory, I talked to the Japanese and said to them this is a big problem, I had dinner with Takawaka

San last Monday night –

WANG: Yeah.

MAGUIRE: - and I said to him, you know, they've raised it it's a big problem because I – I think Li's gonna fuck around. Li is fucking around. Honestly he's going on about these letters and wanting government to government and all this stuff, do you really think he's serious?

WANG: Yeah and he's – he's very unhappy with that letter, yes.

MAGUIRE: Yeah well (UNINTELLIGIBLE) but he's – I mean he's expecting people to do things that – that they're not authorised to do. Maybe he should go to one of the Ministers in the other place, you know, the ones that have signed up and get them to do the letter instead.

WANG: Oh, so who sorry?

MAGUIRE: Well – well the Minister in um in Vanuatu, right?

WANG: Oh no – no that – that's - is Samoa not to Vanuatu.

MAGUIRE: Yeah, no but the – the point I'm making is that once one of them do a letter then the others will follow.

WANG: No – no, he said (UNINTELLIGIBLE) 'cause Samoa is the sister city (UNINTELLIGIBLE) that thing -

MAGUIRE: No well I –

WANG: - because of sister city.

MAGUIRE: - well I don't know how you get them to do something when they don't want to do it darl. I just –

WANG: Yeah.

MAGUIRE: - I just don't know what you do.

WANG: Mm.

MAGUIRE: Let's talk to Hobart about it okay when he's here. You want to organise –

WANG: Yeah.

MAGUIRE: - tomorrow then we'll catch up with him sometime – how are you for time tomorrow or Wednesday or Thursday or something?

WANG: Yeah I – I – I'll ask him because looks like he's – oh yeah I'll ask him what's, you know, the conference what you know –

MAGUIRE: Yeah what- what he's plan and say –

WANG: Yeah.

MAGUIRE: - we want to catch up.

WANG: Yeah.

MAGUIRE: So eve – even if we catch up for morning tea or lunch or something –

WANG: Yeah.

MAGUIRE: - we can have a catch. Tomorrows probably better for me, but if he's conference is from tomorrow well that's a problem isn't it?

WANG: Yeah – yeah and looks like the – I tried to find the schedules of the conference, I can't find exactly, but looks like tomorrow because the first day was quite easy.

MAGUIRE: Mm – mm alright so – so let's find out if we can –

WANG: Oh he – he's – he's leaving on Friday night.

MAGUIRE: Yes, but I'm – I'm leaving on – unless you deal with it, I'm leaving on ah Friday morning.

WANG: Alright, okay.

MAGUIRE: Yeah – yeah 'cause I've got a –

WANG: So we only can do –

MAGUIRE: I only can do –

WANG: Yeah.

MAGUIRE: - I only can do Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday somewhere there –

WANG: Yeah – yeah – yeah.

MAGUIRE: And I'm pretty busy so, but we do need –
