Wagga will bid to host the Invictus Games' clay target shooting event

Wagga MP Daryl Maguire has revealed the city will bid to host an Invictus Games event in 2018.

Since the national clay target ground was in Wagga, Mr Maguire said, it made sense to “have a shot” at hosting the event.

“I spoke to the Premier who told me to ‘go hard’ and I spoke to the Governor who as a soldier who served in Wagga was excited by the prospect of the event being held here,” Mr Maguire said.

“We’ve got a connection to the military as the home of the soldier, but we’ll need community support.”

A round-table event will be held in February to bring tourism, accommodation and city officials together to coordinate the bid.
