

Letter to Dr Andrew R. Wallace, Chair, Riverina Conservatorium of Music

Issue:	Letter to Dr Andrew R. Wallace, Chair, Riverina Conservatorium of Music (RCM) regarding their unsolicited proposal to acquire 1 Simmons Street, Wagga Wagga in 2017.
Analysis:	The RCM submitted an unsolicited proposal regarding the acquisition of 1 Simmons Street, Wagga Wagga in 2017. After a thorough assessment, a decision has been made that the proposal should not be further considered under the unsolicited proposals framework. However, Regional NSW Group will work with RCM, Government Property NSW and Charles Sturt University with a view to establishing the RCM on the Simmons Street site.
Deadline:	11 January 2018.

Key reasons

RCM unsolicited proposal for 1 Simmons Street Wagga Wagga site to progress through different pathway

- RCM submitted an unsolicited proposal regarding the acquisition of 1 Simmons Street, Wagga Wagga in 2017 (Attachment B).
- After a thorough assessment, a decision has been made that the proposal should not be further considered under the unsolicited proposals framework.
- Regional NSW Group will work with RCM, Government Property NSW and Charles Sturt University with a view to establishing the RCM on the Simmons Street site.

List of attachments

- Attachment A – Letter to Dr Andrew R. Wallace, Chair, Riverina Conservatorium of Music
- Attachment B – RCM Unsolicited Proposal

Recommendations and actions

- Sign the attached letter to Dr Andrew R. Wallace, Chair, Riverina Conservatorium of Music at Attachment A.

DPC final approver:	Never Submitted
	Gary Barnes, Deputy Secretary, Regional NSW, 02 9228 4400

Responsible Action Officer:	Chris Hanger, Executive Director – Regional NSW, 0411 417 184
------------------------------------	---

DPC Office Use:

Sensitivity label: NSW Government

Date DPC action due: 11/01/18

Date final action due: 11/01/18