Is part of the explanation what you're essentially saying before, there was a concern at least by Mr Landrigan that the Deputy Premier's Office might be trying to kill the project and having a letter out there on not just your letterhead but on a very senior minister's letterhead, that of the Treasurer, would make it more difficult for the Deputy Premier's Office to kill the project if the Deputy Premier's Office was so inclined?---I think that's a reasonable conclusion to draw from what's here but I don't have, I don't have all of the, well, personally, I don't have the recollection and, and I, I don't have the context for all of this discussion - - -

But that's at least a plausible explanation - - -?---Yeah, I think that's - - -
