BEREJKLIAN: Well -

MAGUIRE: - we would lose. I tell you now they would – they would campaign like you wouldn't believe and we'd have nothing to defend ourselves with a hole -

BEREJKLIAN: Mm.

MAGUIRE: - in the ground. I can't believe –

BEREJKLIAN: Mm.

MAGUIRE: - that they didn't even do it. That idiot – that idiot I spoke to he's ██████████'s nephew.

EXTRACT 2

MAGUIRE: I can't believe they left Wagga Hospital off there. What is wrong with them?

BEREJIKLIAN: I've just fixed that one. I can't fix everything else, but I've got that one on for you –

MAGUIRE: Yeah but – but –

BEREJIKLIAN: - a hundred and seventy mil.

MAGUIRE: - but - yeah but – but – but what's wrong with them. I mean the problem is, if – if you – anyway. They've got to give something for Tumut or at least some excuse for Tumut because we're going into an election with no money for a new hospital. Nothing, not even you know planning money, but give them half a million for planning, something to keep them all occupied. Put a (UNINTELLIGIBLE) line on it because um that all comes down as consolidated revenue for the health budget –

BEREJIKLIAN: Mm.

MAGUIRE: They need to put a line item that says further planning, acquisitions at Tumut Hospital, five million dollars, two million, doesn't matter. And the same as the fuckin school, you know a million dollars to continue planning, anything than leave it off.

BEREJIKLIAN: Mm.
