See below. Daryl Maguire was appointed as the NSWCTA patron in 2009 and removed in 2018. There isn't any record of him ever being a member of the ACTA.

Hi Col,
I have looked on the ACTA Database and there is no file for Daryl Maguire, which would mean he has never been a member.
He was appointed as our patron in 2009 and was removed in 2018.

See below, if you could find out the information that [REDACTED] is looking for that would be appreciated. If you could have a look on the data base as well that would be good. He should show up as a lapsed member if he was ever registered.

The info is for an ICAC investigator. So it is confidential.

Thanks muchly 🙏

Col

He was formally appointed as the Patron of NSWCTA some time ago, before I was elected to the NSW Executive. He was dismissed when his underhand dealings came to light. I will get our administrator to research both dates tomorrow.

I am uncertain if he was ever a registered shooting member. I seriously doubt that he was, but he may have been given honorary membership, I just don't know. I will get the ACTA to run a check through our system for you.

Cheers

Good evening Colin

I hope this email finds you well.

I was hoping you could assist with a question? I have noted on a number of publications Daryl Maguire stated he was a 'Patron' of the NSWCTA. Was that an official title awarded to him by the Association or was it more informal? Also at anytime was Mr Maguire a member of the NSWCTA and/or a participant in the sport?

Kind regards
