Hello Nicole,

This is an email address for you to use and access. I believe Daryl has spoken to you about it.

the full address will be;

g8wayconsultancy@gmail.com

any mail you send will come up as that however if you wish it to come up as your name just let me know and I will alter it.

I'm sure you are familiar with the gmail set up..just go to google...click on gmail...enter g8wayconsultancy in the user name area for signing in and then the password which I will send you from another email address

Please let me know if I can help in any other way via my business email address
