WANG TO MAGUIRE

MAGUIRE: DARYL MAGUIRE

WANG: MAGGIE WANG

MAGUIRE: Maggie how are you?

WANG: Yeah not bad, yourself?

MAGUIRE: Good, good. Happy Easter.

WANG: Yeah Happy Easter to you too. (Laughs).

MAGUIRE: Thank you. How you been?

WANG: Yes I – yes good.

MAGUIRE: Oh that's good.

WANG: Yes, yeah was a nice wedding (unintelligible) so yeah -

MAGUIRE: That -

WANG: - was good. (Laughs).

MAGUIRE: It was, it was a lovely wedding wasn't it?

WANG: Yeah, yes.

MAGUIRE: Yeah. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed it, mmm.

WANG: I know, exactly. And ah, I just ah got this information – oh yeah, yeah we got it (unintelligible) you know the, for (unintelligible) accommodation or the um, (unintelligible).

MAGUIRE: Oh good.

WANG: Yeah, yeah (unintelligible).

MAGUIRE: Yep, yep.

WANG: Yeah because he went back to China so -

MAGUIRE: Yeah.

WANG: - ah, that's why I could, you couldn't get it so -

MAGUIRE: No problem.

WANG: - at – yeah. And um I got this information about new technology. I got ah, um, ah all new petroleum exploration. And ah, so what happening is lot – if, if there was some, ah there was oil wells ah, you know because these explore for a while and there's no um oil um come out. You know it normally clay. There, there has to be some oil there but it's no point to get them out because too costly.

MAGUIRE: Mmm.

WANG: So new technology will, can do that -

MAGUIRE: Oh really.

WANG: - by (unintelligible) cost yeah, yeah. It sounds like it's very you know, rev, revolutionary -

MAGUIRE: Mmm.

WANG: - um, kind of technology.

MAGUIRE: Mmm.

WANG: They, they already you know um, been using in China and they are doing a trial in America as well and ah so they want to have a partner with any you know, Australian oil company because I can't think of any Australian oil company with oil exploration and they did send me some lists about you know Australian -

MAGUIRE: Mmm, mmm.

WANG: - those companies like (unintelligible) like had you know like (unintelligible) Beach Petroleum, some yeah.

MAGUIRE: Yes, yeah mmm.

WANG: But those (unintelligible) and so what they want to do is they don't need these companies put any funds or money in.

MAGUIRE: Mmm.

WANG: And um, ah so what they want, ah so they are going to use their own, the funding and equipment and ah, you know technicians.

MAGUIRE: Mmm.

WANG: They all ours and they just use those old wells which they're not going – they're not exploring anymore -

MAGUIRE: Mmm.

WANG: - and once they get oil out and they do you know share the you know -

MAGUIRE: Mmm.

WANG: - the product (unintelligible).

MAGUIRE: How, how do they get the oil out? What technology do they use?

WANG: They um, I have um kind of thing I can send to you because I really doesn't you know, I'm not very, you know.

MAGUIRE: Okay well I'm, I'm in Sydney in the morning so I -

WANG: Okay.

MAGUIRE: - yeah I'm in Sydney in the morning. Have you got time? Let's catch up um -

WANG: Oh.

MAGUIRE: - I've got to go to Canberra in the afternoon, but I'm in Sydney -

WANG: Oh.

MAGUIRE: - in the morning so let's catch up and talk about it.
