20 MS CLIFTON: I did just want to indicate a few things. I've been advised that there is no need for an interpreter tomorrow and I'd just like to put that on the record that that is still the case.---Yes.

Yes. And we - - -

MR ALDEN: Just in doing that, we might need to have repeated questions.

MS CLIFTON: Yes.

30 THE COMMISSIONER: Oh, that's okay. My perception during the course of that day is that your client's understanding of English and in fact her spoken English and written English from what we've seen is quite good. If that's her position, that she doesn't really need one but we might have to repeat some questions, that's fine.
